

Drama

At Settlebeck School, our Drama curriculum is designed to inspire and empower students, fostering creativity, confidence, and a deep appreciation for the performing arts. Through a carefully crafted and inclusive program, we aim to provide a transformative learning experience that goes beyond the stage, preparing students for the challenges and opportunities of the 21st century.

In Drama our intent is to provide a dynamic and enriching learning experience that nurtures:

- artistic expression
- communication skills
- confidence building
- empathy and understanding
- collaboration
- teamwork
- critical thinking
- cultural enrichment and appreciation
- life skills

Inclusivity is at the heart of our Drama curriculum. We strive to create a safe and welcoming space where students of all backgrounds feel represented and valued. Our selection of texts and performances reflects a commitment to diversity, allowing students to engage with a wide range of voices and perspectives, challenging stereotypes and fostering empathy.

In summary, our Drama curriculum at Settlebeck School is designed to ignite a lifelong passion for the performing arts, nurture individual growth, and prepare students to become confident, creative, and empathetic members of society. Through the exploration of drama, we aim to inspire a love for learning, encourage self-discovery, and celebrate the richness of human expression.
