

History

At Settlebeck School, our History curriculum is designed with an unwavering commitment to fostering a deep and enduring passion for understanding the past. Our intent is to inspire curiosity, critical thinking, and a sense of empathy in our students, equipping them with the knowledge and skills to navigate the complexities of the world around them.

Rooted in the National Curriculum, our intent is to provide a dynamic and enriching learning experience that nurtures:

- cultivating historical knowledge empowering students to
  - interpret sources
  - think like a historian
  - speak like a historian
  - write like a historian
- promoting historical inquiry
- fostering a sense of connection
- encouraging global awareness
- celebrating diversity and inclusion

In essence, our History curriculum at Settlebeck School is designed to be a transformative and enriching journey that prepares students not only for academic success but also for a lifelong appreciation of the importance of history in shaping the world we live in today.
